WHY THESIS to ISBN BOOK

Empyreal Publishing House offers thesis publication services to give authors a global platform to showcase their valuable work. Master's Thesis or a Doctoral Dissertation are grey literature which are not widely accessible. But, with the help of EHP, the research and findings of thesis will have a worldwide visibility and can greatly contribute to their respective fields of creativity. If you are awarded Master / Doctorate degree and want to give your thesis a shape of a Book, then opt for our thesis publication services and get your work recognized by one and all.

A thesis or dissertation needs to be published for getting its due recognition. Only published content can add to the existing body of knowledge and get referenced in articles submitted by other researchers. The career prospects of a researcher or academician is determined to a great extent by the quality as well as the quantity of articles published. After Master / Doctorate, if you wish to remain in academia or move into a related profession, publishing your thesis is often considered essential. The PhD is an academic exercise aimed at gaining a qualification and a set of skills, whereas a book is intended to be read by others. Converting your thesis into a book can be used as a building block to an academic career, to influence your discipline and expand your knowledge of the field.

Your thesis will be published in Book form having ISBN and will have open access, which means that your thesis will be available to anyone in the world to download / read for free directly from the website . Your thesis will be accessible from Google Scholar and Google.

EHP is publishing Thesis/Dissertation Work that emphasizes research, development and application within the fields of new business, engineering and technology, science, education, architecture etc.
